YOUR OBLIGATIONS TO US WHEN JOINING THE UNION

When you join the Communication, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union – (CEPU) Plumbing Division New South Wales Branch you are accepted subject to the Rule 6 – “Admission to Membership”. Should any objection be lodged to your membership you will be notified. If objection is not lodged you will be deemed to be a member of the Union as from the date of your application and your dues, in accordance with the Rules, will commence from that date.

Should you change your address you must notify the office immediately by phone or letter, otherwise you will not receive clear cards, notices or journals.

Should you become unemployed notify the office (in writing, with proof) immediately so that your account can be adjusted to the Rule 10.1.1 “Out of Trade” rate.

If you wish to resign it MUST BE IN WRITING or EMAIL and you must be currently financial.

RESIGNATIONS ARE NOT ACCEPTED OVER THE PHONE

NOTE: NOT PAYING YOUR UNION DUES DOES NOT MEAN YOU HAVE RESIGNED.
